YOUNG FOLKS' CORNER
A Geography Party.

A geography party will prove especially interesting to school children and is easily planned. Procure a large map of the United States and paste it upon rather heavy cardboard. When this has thoroughly dried out each state and mark on the back with numbers, being careful not to number them according to their positions. Before the arrival of the guests hide the states about the room in which the company is to be entertained. When the guests arrive provide each with a small map and a pencil. They then follow whatever route they choose, the game being to find as many of the states as possible, and upon their own map mark the number which they believe to correspond. If Ohio is marked "10," as they find it or think they find it, they mark "10" upon the state in their small map which they think must be Ohio and then continue the search, marking each state which they find in the same way. The task is not an easy one, as several of the states closely resemble each other in outline, and the one correctly placing the largest number of numerals is entitled to the prize. It is of course unnecessary to say that on the small map the states are outlined, but not named. The maps are easily made by the use of transfer paper, or they can be drawn upon any thin paper by holding a small map against a windowpane and drawing from this upon any thin paper the out- lines of the states.

Think For Yourself.
Thinking for yourself is not necessarily differing to any startling extent from your companions. Two pupils in school may work out a problem by entirely different methods, but if they work correctly they reach the same result. That is as it should be, but if the two students sit side by side and the one copies down the other's figures mechanically that is what too often happens. Make a habit of thinking. Don't accept conclusions readily made. Don't satisfy your mind with predigested food. This should not make you singular among your fellows, for if your method of reasoning is correct it will bring you, in the vast majority of cases, to the same conclusions held by the world at large. The difference will be in you. Thinking for yourself in stead of accepting the results of others' thoughts makes the same difference to you that it does to the student who works his problem independently instead of copying it from his classmate's paper. Be ambitious to be something more than a convenient receptacle for other people's ideas.

The Game of Pig.
There must be three or more players for this game, each with a broom handle or a stick about that size and length. Dig a hole about six inches in diameter and if there are four players dig three other ones about five feet from the first and about seven feet apart. One player must be the pig driver—the pig is a tin can—who tries to knock the pig into the central hole with his stick, while the others try to knock the pig away. The driver tries to put his stick into the hole of another player while the other is knocking the pig away. If he does this the owner of the hole must give it up and be the driver himself. Or, if he knocks the can into the central hole, all the players have to change holes, giving him a chance for one. This is a very interesting game if there are five or six players.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Exhibit of Fishes.
The New York Aquarium society recently held an exhibit at the American Museum of Natural History and showed little fishes of all shapes and colors, the largest scarcely five inches in length. Fishes from the water troughs of India, the fish ponds of China and Japan, the tepid swamps of South America, tributaries of the Congo and the Nile were exhibited as well as the goldfish and small wild fish from temperate zones. Among the more interesting are the butterfly fish and the mouth breeder, which carries its eggs in its mouth, both from Africa; the armored catfish from tropical America and the fighting fish.

Thanks Boy Scouts.
A letter has been received by the council of the Boy Scouts of America from Sir Robert S. S. Baden-Powell, chief scout of the Boy Scouts of England, acknowledging the presentation of thanks medals by the American organization through United States Ambassador Page to the British boy scouts who assisted American war refugees.

A Wishing Ring.
I wish I had
A wishing ring
That fairies
Gave to me,
So I could wish
For everything
That I would Like to be.

I'd want a castle
And some curls
(Instead of Braids to wear),
For I just think
That little girls
Look sweet
In curly hair!

And I just know
The very thing
To make it
All come true—
I wish I had
A wishing ring,
Oh, dear, Oh,
Dear, I do!

Ten Weeks in Bed--Eminent Physicians Failed--Wonderful Recovery.

I wish to inform you of the great benefit I have derived from the use of Swamp-Root. I had been a sufferer for more than twenty years from kidney and liver trouble and was almost constantly treated by the most eminent physicians who could only give me temporary relief. I had been in bed ten weeks when I began the use of Swamp-Root. Inside of twenty-four hours I could see that I had been greatly benefited. I continued to use Swamp-Root until I had used several bottles when I readily felt that my old trouble was completely cured and I am positive that any person suffering with kidney or liver trouble can be cured by the use of this preparation. I am now in the best of health, better than I have been for ten years or more. I do not know how to express myself as strongly as I desire, in favor of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, as I am sure that it saved my life and that my good health is due entirely to this great remedy. I heartily recommend it to every sufferer and am confident they can be benefited as I have been. It is a pleasure for me, gentlemen, to hand you this recommendation.
MRS. H. J. PRICE,
1406 Center St.
Poultersmouth, Ohio.
Personally appeared before me this 13th of September, 1909, Mrs. H. J. Price, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

Working Up a Sable Pelt.
"A fur dealer told me I wouldn't know a sable if I saw one," said a man who had been inquiring about pelts. "I thought, of course, they'd be soft, fluffy little fellows, but he says they have a hide as flat as a rat's. He says that when the skins are taken from the animals they are so hard that they are placed in a tub and a barefooted man steps in and begins to tread on them to soften them. The tub is tilted so that at each step the man takes the skins slide down the slope and are kept moving. The man treads for hours and hours before any pile appears. When it begins to rise the skins are oiled and the treading begins again. This is continued until the skins are as supple as chamois and the pile has become so high that the fur has that soft depth and beautiful rich gloss for which it is prized."

The Ancient Greek.
No greater gift could be made to our modern world than the rediscovery of the Greek physical supremacy. The secret of the method by which, for one brief period, they realized perfection was long since lost, no one knows how. At present so little do we understand the principles of training which guided the Greek in his games, in his battles and his dances, and made the proportions of his figure different from ours of today, that Greek sculpture is in reality a puzzle to us. Certain postures fixed by the Greek sculptor seem to us contortions, bordering on physical impossibilities. There is always a terrific controversy over the restoration of Greek sculpture, and even then the arms and heads and legs we supply never look right.—New York Times.

A Child's Cough Calls for Help
Don't put off treating your child's cough. It not only saps their strength, but often leads to more serious ailments. Why risk? You don't have to. Dr. King's New Discovery is just the remedy your child needs. It is made with soothing, healing and antiseptic balsams. Will quickly check the cold and soothe your child's cough away. No odds how bad the cough or how long standing, Dr. King's New Discovery will stop it. It's guaranteed. Just get a bottle from your druggist and try it.

Kansas claims to have the largest silo in the world, located near Englewood in that state. It is fifty feet high, fifty feet across, extends fifteen feet below the surface of the ground and has a capacity of 2,500 tons of ensilage.

Sluggish Liver Needs Attention
Let your liver get torpid and you are in for a spell of misery. Everybody gets an attack now and then. Thousands of people keep their livers active and healthy by using Dr. King's New Life Pills. Fine for the stomach, too. Stop the dizziness, constipation, biliousness and indigestion. Clear the blood. Only 25c at your druggist.

And even though a New York court has ruled that what a wife earns belongs to her husband, the average husband may find difficulty in collecting his dues.

Rheumatism Yields to Sloan's
You can't prevent an attack of rheumatism from coming on, but you can stop it almost immediately. Sloan's Liniment gently applied to the sore joint or muscle penetrates it a few minutes to the inflamed spot that causes the pain. It soothes the hot, tender, swollen feeling, and in a very short time brings a relief that is almost unbelievable until you experience it. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25c of any druggist and have it in the house—against colds, sore and swollen joints, lumbago, sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.

FIERCE BATTLES OF POLISH BORDERLAND
Region of Masurian Lakes Scene of Gigantic Conflicts.

Ruin and desolation everywhere mark the terrific battlefields of the Polish and East Prussian borderland. The illustration shows a wrecked bridge over the Wartte or Warta river on the road from Kallsch to Warsaw. Kallsch is the westernmost city of Russia in Poland and is 130 miles from Warsaw. The bridge was destroyed by the Russians to cover a retreat and was hastily repaired by German pioneers. All about has been the scene of terrific engagements in which the Germans have won some notable victories under the leadership of the redoubtable Von Hindenburg. This is the region of the Masurian lakes, where the Russian general, Rennenkampf, received a terrific setback during the latter part of last August, when his army by superior strategy on the part of the Germans was driven into the lakes and swamps with a reported loss of 125,000 killed and wounded while 70,000 prisoners were taken. This was known as the battle of Tannenberg.

In this region, too, the Russians just recently received a second disastrous defeat at the hands of the Germans. This latter fighting has been described as the February campaign in East Prussia and north Poland, and it is regarded as a second Tannenberg. The Russians, composing the Tenth army, were under the command of General Sievers. It is true that this command, by a skillful use of the railroads at his disposal and by the sacrifice at times of entire battalions in order to bring off a few guns, succeeded in saving a greater part of his artillery, but no fewer than 60,000 of his 150,000 men were counted among the German prisoners, while his killed and wounded in the four days' battle with which these operations were inaugurated and the subsequent running fights are estimated at not fewer than 30,000 men. The Russians, however, aver that the last German victory at the frontier has been exaggerated and that the Germans failed to force the extreme flanks of the Russian position.

International law being merely an unwritten law of precedents, it may be repealed or altered at any time by new precedents. And the European belligerents have been rather reckless about setting new precedents. The rumor that some of the European sovereigns are investing their spare funds in American securities should be a hint for Americans themselves. American securities offer about the best investment in the world today.

LINWOOD.

Messrs. John and George Clark spent Sunday at their home here.

We notice that a band of Gypsies are camping on the road near the paper mills.

Amelia Kakuschke returned home Friday after spending a week with Mrs. William King at Stevens Point.

A very large crowd attended the dance given at Schlenovogt's hall last Friday evening and a good time was had.

Everybody try to be present at the meeting of the S. E. W.'s next Tuesday night at Mrs. Chas. Brandt's home.

Mrs. Genevieve Andrews of Stevens Point is visiting for a couple of weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Saul Godin.

The Linwood creamery started up Monday morning. Some of the farmers who promised to bring milk to the creamery have failed to do so. Now is the time to think of "Linwood first." Be a booster, not a rooster!

MEEHAN.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Irving Brown, April 5th.

Geo. B. Fox of Plainfield called on friends here Thursday and Friday.

Miss Amanda Lawler of Grand Rapids spent a few days here last week visiting with friends.

Ed. Norton of McDill is helping Frank Wauk frame a large barn which will be erected this spring.

Matt. Hemmis is again writing insurance for the Central Mutual and Cyclopedia Insurance Co.

Mrs. Hale and sons now occupy the Gross place in Dist. No. 7, they having located there since we reported last.

Garrett Fox went to Alma Center Monday to begin work on a large stock farm for the third consecutive season.

Miss Mabel Gross, who is attending the teachers' training school at Grand Rapids, spent a week of recreation at home.

Jos. Worzalla recently purchased the Hoffman place. This is a well located farm and makes a pleasant home.

Miss Ada Langton of South Plover spent a couple of days here last week with friends and also attended the party at the Fox place.

Flowering commenced last week, seeding soon to follow. Clover has stood the winter well and presents a golden prospect to those who seeded last year.

Saul Godin of Linwood spent last week here doing carpenter work for Orrin Clendenning, who is repairing his house which was damaged by fire last fall.

The plays and entertainments given at the Rosenthal school house and also the county line district were well attended by people from here. The teachers and young people of both places are to be complimented for their successful attempts in presenting these entertainments.

The basket party given at the home of B. S. Fox last Thursday night was a success both socially and financially. There was an unusually large crowd of young people and many of the older ones were present also. Old and young joined in old time games of amusement and everyone had a cheerful good time. As the crowd departed for their homes it was declared that friendship's tie was stronger for having mingled together. The receipts were $16.65, for which the committee wishes to publicly thank all.

We were pained to hear of the death of Mr. Glennon. Having been correspondent from this place to The Gazette for several years and a frequent caller at the office, warm friendship sprang up between us. We were invariably greeted with a hearty handshake and a pleasant smile, which always cheered us on our way and we had learned to regard him as a friend. In all our acquaintance with Mr. Glennon we always found him to be a gentleman whom we could honor and respect. We desire to extend to the bereaved relatives our sincere sympathy.

Girls' Club Organized.

At a recent meeting of the Library board the Woman's Club made application for the use of the west club room in the library to be used as a meeting place for a Girls' club, and the application was granted. As a result, thru the efforts of members of the Woman's Club, a number of young ladies in the city met at the library last week and an organization was formed and the following officers elected: President, Miss Elizabeth Tetzloff; vice president, Miss Pauline Nowak; secretary, Miss Theresa Lukaszewicz; treasurer, Miss Katherine Jerzak.

The purposes of the organization is to promote sociability and that girls throughout the city may meet for recreation. An advisory board, consisting of three members of the Woman's club, Miss Jennie Graham, Mrs. F. H. Patterson and Mrs. C. C. Conlisk, will assist the girls in carrying out the purpose of the club, and a committee of five members of the Woman's club, one of whom will be present at each meeting. The latter are Miss Graham, Miss Maude Brewster, Miss Frances Bannach, Mrs. D. J. Leahy and Mrs. Louis Maloney.

PICKING A PICKPOCKET.

Rules That Guide Chicago Detectives In Spotting Their Man.

How to tell a pickpocket when you see one—the feat is apparently not difficult, for all applicants who take the civil service examination to become Chicago detectives are required to have mastered it.

"What are the physical characteristics of pickpockets?" the would be thief-catchers are asked.

And this is the answer they are expected to give:

"Pickpockets ordinarily travel in mobs and are of two distinct types—one small or medium stature, the other tall and muscular. As a general rule, the age runs from eighteen to thirty-five. Their hands are soft, show no signs of work, and the fingers of all except the 'stall' and particularly the fingers of the 'wire' are long and slender. Their eyes are shifting and furtive. Their complexion is generally sallow and without distinct color, this being due either to prison pallor in types or to the use of cocaine or other drugs. The cocaine users show drawn features and prominent cheek bones and usually have distinct rings around the eyes.

"The temperament of pickpockets is high strung because of the dangers of the 'profession' or from the use of drugs. At the same time they are polite almost to the point of obsequiousness. They seldom carry weapons and rarely resort to force. On duty they dress to suit the occasion, generally well, but not conspicuously. They avoid wearing anything that might lead to identification." — Baltimore American.

OUR FIRST ELECTION.

Methods in the Days When Washington Was Chosen President.

At the first national election at which General Washington was chosen president only eleven of the thirteen states voted, North Carolina and Rhode Island not yet having entered the Union, and in only three—Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia—were popular elections held. In the other eight states the legislatures chose the electors. New York did not choose electors because of a feud between the anti-Federalist house and the Federalist senate.

One exciting incident was caused by the fear on the part of Alexander Hamilton that John Adams, who was on the ticket for vice president with Washington, was plotting to tie the vote, and thus by throwing the election into the national house of representatives defeat the Father of His Country for president. So read was this fear in Hamilton that he dispatched messengers on horses to Virginia, Connecticut and New Jersey to stampede the legislatures of the latter two states to Washington.

So long did it take to gather news that Washington was actually inaugurated president before some of the remote counties in Virginia had sent in their returns. In this first election there was only one ticket and there was no campaigning. There were only about 3,000,000 inhabitants in the country at that time, and the whole cost of setting up the machinery of this presidential election is estimated at less than $100,000.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

The Spinster's Hint.

A maiden well advanced in years used to wait every morning for the postman, a bachelor of about her age, and ask him if there were not a letter for her. Several weeks passed thus, but the anxiously expected letter did not arrive. Finally one morning the postman said to her:

"Well, tomorrow you shall get your letter if I have to write it myself."

"That's right; do it," replied the old maid. "I shall be delighted to accept it."

"Well," said the postman, smiling, "what do you want me to write—a business letter or a love letter?"

"If you mean business, please write a love letter!" was her blushing reply. —London Scraps.

Ownership of the Air.

Our ancestors must have foreseen the aeroplane or they would not have embodied in the law the principle that he who owns the land owns the column of air above "asque ad coelum," or up to the skies. This can be traced back as far as the reign of Edward I, and from this time every authority to the present court of appeal has emphasized the right of every citizen not only to be king of his own castle, but of the sky above it.—London Chronicle.

Too Deep For Him.

A Britisher was announcing his views on things in general and summed up his own position by the statement, "Well, I've seen life." "But," said his American friend, "one of your own bright poets has said, 'Life's a joke.'" The Britisher is still exploring the remark.—New York Times.

Consistent.

She—This wait between the acts seems to me to be dreadfully long. He—Yes. You see, twenty years are supposed to elapse, and the management is simply trying to make the effect as realistic as possible.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Trimming the Barber.

The Head Barber—Sure, Mr. Allgall, I'll lend you a dollar. Glad to help you out. Mr. Allgall—Many thanks, old man. They're having a sale of safety razors around the corner, and I didn't want to miss it.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Every real and searching effort for self-improvement is of itself a lesson of profound humility.

Woman's Club.

At the regular meeting of the Woman's club last Saturday afternoon a letter from Mrs. Edward A. Luedke, chairman of the department of conservation of the Wisconsin federation of women's clubs, was read, to the effect that the forests which protect the headwaters of the Chippewa, Menominee and Wisconsin rivers are threatened by a recent decision of the supreme court. The club was asked to look into this matter and write our state representatives in regard to it.

Following the business meeting, the following program was carried out: Piano solo, Miss Helga Anderson; violin solo, Miss Humphrey, accompanied by Miss Leigh; address, "The Nature and Tendency of the Novel," Prof. H. S. Hippensteel; vocal solo, Mrs. T. H. Hanna. The musical numbers were all interpreted with skill and each of the ladies kindly responded with an encore.

Mr. Hippensteel gave an interesting and inspiring address. The distinguishing marks of the epic, the idyl, the pastoral poem and the characteristics of the novel were illustrated by the use of a figure of speech, which not only gave a very clear idea of these literary forms, but ran an exceedingly poetic motif through the entire address.

Mrs. Leahy expressed the gratitude of the club to those who had furnished an exceedingly interesting program, after which adjournment was taken for the usual social hour.

THOUGHTLESS FRIENDS.

They Mean Well Enough, but They Will Do Such Queer Things.

"Most of the annoyances of life are caused by friends," writes James Montgomery Flagg in the American Magazine. "It doesn't annoy you when your enemy tries to get you in bad. You don't expect anything else from him. It's his regular business. You'd feel that he was a pretty nasty sort of enemy if he didn't try to puncture one of your tires! Then you can think and speak about him as a leprous horned toad. But you can't think or speak about a friend that way when he gets under your skin. He's your friend! That's all there is to it—he did it, and he's a feeble minded ant eater, but he's still your friend!"

"Only a dear friend would greet you when you're feeling peculiarly gay and fit with, 'Sa-a-ay! What's the trouble? You look positively green, old horse! Don't you feel well? You ought to take a long rest, that's right; I don't like that hollow eyed look of yours, perhaps it's your heart.'"

"Or come up behind you when you are looking calmly at some old prints in a window on the avenue and forgetting there are such things in the world as idiotic friends, and let his enormous flat nine pound hand down on you between your shoulders so that you think for the moment that a prehistoric mule with hoofs on him the size of the rubbish receptacles on the corners has planted them in the interior of your lungs! Only a friend could inspire such diabolical and streaming hatred that rises up in the wreck of your breast, when you manage to turn and see what hit you!"

"Or if you happen to ask certain friends to go motoring several times and have them to dinner quite often, and you let two or three Sundays go by without asking them, it is only dear friends who would, on meeting you next time, greet you with a Hudson Bay expression and a bucket of sarcasm!"

"Or, speaking of the sex that is responsible for all the poets, who but a true and tried friend would put over to her friend, 'Oh, Camille, you were such a pretty girl as a young girl, and you did have the loveliest, loveliest...'"

AUSTRIAN ARMY IS CUT INTO TWO PARTS

Force in Carpathians in Precarious Position.

SMOLENSK TAKEN BY RUSS

10,000 Russians Captured During Battle Fought on Easter, Says Report Issued at Vienna.

London, April 10.—General Boerovitch's army in the Carpathians has been cut in two pieces, according to an official statement from Petrograd, which says that the eastern wing of the Austro-German forces now is in a precarious position. The czar's staff claims also that they have driven through Rostock pass and captured Smolnik.

Reporting on the fighting at another point, Vienna says 10,000 Russians were captured in the Easter battle and that the invaders have met with a positive repulse in the Laborca valley.

Petrograd, via London, April 10.—The Russian armies have thrown back the Austrians in the district of Bartfeld and in the district of Lapkow pass. Having advanced through the Rostock pass, they have forced a wedge between the Austrian armies.

Smolnik, captured by the Russians, controls the only road through the Beskid mountains between Mezolaboroz and Uzsok, a distance of sixty miles.

The Russians have crossed the crest of the Beskids at Grommenoe and apparently have a clear road to the plains of Hungary.

Vienna, via London, April 10.—At the war office the following statement was issued:

"Obstinate fighting in the sector of the East Beskid mountains (along the boundary between Hungary and Galicia) which has lasted for several weeks, reached its climax at Easter. Continual Russian attacks, especially on both sides of the Laborca valley, where the enemy was re-enforced by a majority of the troops which had besieged Przemyśl, were repulsed with enormous losses to the enemy. Counter-attacking, German and Austrian troops captured on the heights to the west and east of the valley several strong Russian positions.

"Though the fighting at this point has not yet terminated, our success in the Easter battle, in which some 10,000 unwounded prisoners were captured, is undisputable."

KAISER TO PAY FOR FRYE.

Germany Takes Liability for Destruction of U. S. Ship.

Washington, April 10.—The German answer to the American note presenting a claim for the destruction of the William P. Frye was made public by the state department on Thursday. While the action of Captain Thierichens in sinking the Frye is justified by the German government, Herr von Jagow, German minister for foreign affairs, tells the United States that the American owners of the ship and cargo will receive compensation "even if the prize court should declare the cargo contraband," because the Prussian-American treaties of 1799 and 1828 provide that contraband belonging to the citizens of either nation "cannot be confiscated by the other in any case, but only detained or used in consideration of payment of the full value of the same."

U. S. CRUISER TO NICARAGUA.

Chattanooga Sails Under Rush Orders From Panama for Corinto.

Panama, April 8.—The United States cruiser Chattanooga sailed under rush orders for Corinto, Nicaragua. The sailing of the cruiser is believed here to have been due to the reported outbreak of a revolution on the west coast of Nicaragua.

A dispatch from San Juan del Sur, Nicaragua, Tuesday night, said a revolutionary movement had begun in the State of Esteli, Nicaragua.

To Absorb Surplus Money.

London, April 9.—Indications point to a £15,000,000 sterling bill issue every week until all superfluous money has been absorbed.

MAJ. GEN. SIR J. S. COWANS

One of the biggest jobs of the British army is that of the quartermaster-general, whose duty it is to see that every soldier in service is provided with all necessities of war, from a shoe to big trench shelters. Sir J. S. Cowans, who fills this highly important position, is the third military member of the army council and has been working ceaselessly to supply the provisions, clothing, shelter, and, in fact, everything used by the three to four million soldiers in the field.

CHICAGO MEN AND WOMEN ELECT G. O. P. MAN MAYOR

Almost Entire Republican Ticket Won by Wm. Hale Thompson—Has Plurality of 138,891.

Chicago, April 8.—William Hale Thompson was swept into the mayor's chair on Tuesday in a Republican landslide that carried nearly the entire Republican city ticket to victory. Robert M. Sweitzer, Democratic entrant, was bowled over in an overwhelmingly large vote. It was the biggest ever cast in a local election.

Eighty-seven per cent of the total registration of 769,017 was polled. Of this 243,797 votes were cast by women, who for the first time participated in a mayoral election.

The vote for mayor was:

	Men.	Women.	Total.
Sweitzer, D.	162,074	89,718	251,792
Thompson, R.	246,119	144,564	390,683
Stedman, ..	16,013	7,813	23,826
Hill, P.	1,888	1,702	3,590

Total vote, 426,094 243,797 669,891
Thompson plu. 84,045 54,846 138,891

The women's vote was an important factor in Thompson's victory. Thompson received about 66 per cent of the women's vote.

The avalanche swept in the rest of the Republican city ticket. Charles H. Sergel was elected city treasurer; John Siman, city clerk; Hosea W. Wells, judge of the municipal court.

The "vote of protest" for minor candidates proved a myth. Stedman, Socialist, got 23,826 votes, less than the party polled four years ago; Hill, Prohibition, got 3,590.

Thompson won the mayoralty in the face of one of the bitterest personal campaigns that could be contemplated, and despite the fact that the supporters of Robert M. Sweitzer controlled one of the greatest political machines that has been operated in Chicago since the election of William McKinley president in 1896.

HARVESTER CASE IS ARGUED.

Two Full Days Granted by Supreme Court for Debate.

Washington, April 8.—The crucial contest in the government's dissolution suit against the International Harvester company began with the presentation of the case to the Supreme court in oral arguments. On account of its importance the court consented to give two full days for the argument. Only John P. Wilson, a director of the company and one of its corps of attorneys, was heard. Mr. Wilson declared the business of the company during the ten years of its existence before the suit was brought showed two main purposes that prompted its organization. These were to develop the foreign trade and to establish an all-year-round selling organization.

ESCAPE GIVEN UP; EITEL IS INTERNED

German Raider's Captain Abandons Dash for Liberty.

25 BRITISH SHIPS RELEASED

Captain Thierichens Officially Informs Port Collector Help Has Failed to Arrive and Flight Is Useless.

Newport News, Va., April 9.—Commander Thierichens of the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich on Wednesday night handed the following letter to Collector of Customs Hamilton:

"I inform you that I intend to intern S. M. S. Prinz Eitel Friedrich. The relief I expected appears not to have arrived in time, so the number and force of the enemy's cruisers waiting outside the bay makes it seem impossible for the dash for the open sea to be made with any hope of success.

"I have decided not to deliver the crew and ship to a fruitless and certain death.

"I am greatly obliged for the courtesies shown by all United States authorities.

"Respectfully yours,
"THIERICHENS."

Collector Hamilton immediately wired the news of the Prinz Eitel commander's action to Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Peters, who was in charge of the case in Washington.

He then lifted the embargo on the departure of merchantmen flying belligerent flags, releasing about twenty-five British steamers.

Officers and crew of the Eitel were downcast. Commander Thierichens himself declared that the action he had been forced to take made him sick; that he was heartbroken to be compelled to resort to such a step.

The commerce raider will make her last cruise of the war. She will be taken to the Norfolk navy yard, across Hampton Roads from the shipyard here, where she has been laid since limping into port March 10, after the remarkable commerce-destroying voyage from the Orient, during which she sent the American ship, William P. Frye, to the bottom.

Collector of Customs Hamilton boarded the Eitel Wednesday night with an imperative notice to the vessel's commander from the Washington government that the time for his stay in this port would expire at midnight April 7 and that he must leave American waters by four o'clock on the morning of April 8. Before the customs collector could deliver the message Commander Thierichens handed to him the written announcement of his decision.

TERRE HAUTE MEN GUILTY.

Mayor Roberts and 26 Aids Convicted—Government Wins.

Indianapolis, April 8.—All of the 27 defendants, including Mayor Donn M. Roberts, in the Terre Haute election fraud cases were found guilty by a jury on Tuesday. The case has been on trial in the federal court here since March 8.

Judge Anderson announced that sentence would be passed on the 27 who were found guilty and the 89 who have pleaded guilty next Monday. The federal government based its claim to jurisdiction on the fact that a United States senator and a member of congress were being voted for in the election. The indictment charged that qualified voters were prevented from exercising that right, that qualified persons were prevented from serving on election boards, and that persons who had committed no offense were deprived of their liberty without due process of law. The final court charges a scheme to defraud the gamblers and saloonkeepers of Terre Haute, and in furtherance of this scheme a letter was placed in the mails. This count is based on section 215 of the penal code of the United States.

YOUTH TRIES TO KILL SULTAN.

Young Egyptian Fires Shot at Ruler but Bullet Missed Mark.

Cairo, April 10.—An attempt to assassinate the sultan was made on Thursday, but failed. A young Egyptian fired at him. The bullet failed to take effect.

The present sultan of Egypt, Prince Hussein, was placed on the throne by the English on December 18, last, the former sultan having been deposed because of his pro-German sympathies. Sultan Hussein is in everything except birth more of an Englishman than a Turk. He was educated in England and is in full sympathy with the English annexation of Egypt.

JESS WILLARD WINS BIG FIGHT FROM JACK JOHNSON

Kansas Man's Youth Is Too Much for Huge Negro—Right to Jaw Does Trick.

Havana, April 7.—Jack Johnson, exile from his own country, lost his claim to fistic fame as the heavyweight champion of the world. The title was wrested from him by Jess Willard, the Kansas cowboy, the biggest man who ever entered a prize ring, and a "white hope" who at last has made good.

Johnson returned to his rooms almost immediately after the fight. Aside from a cut lip he was unmarked.

The fight probably has no parallel in the history of ring battles. For 20 rounds Johnson punched and pounded Willard at will, but his blows grew perceptibly less powerful as the fight progressed, until at last he seemed unable or unwilling to go on.

Johnson stopped leading and for three or four rounds the battle between the two huge men was little more than a series of plastic poses of white and black gladiators.

So it was until the twenty-fifth round, when Willard got one of his widely swinging, windmill, right-hand smashes at Johnson's heart. This was the beginning of the end.

When the round closed Johnson sent word to his wife that he was "all in," and told her to start for home. She was on the way out and was passing the ring in the twenty-sixth round when a stinging left to the body and a cyclonic right to the jaw caused Johnson to crumple on the floor of the ring, where he lay partly outside the ropes until the referee counted ten and held up Willard's hand in token of his newly-won laurels.

GERMANS ADMIT LOSS OF U-29.

Admiralty Finally Accepts Official British Report.

Berlin, via Amsterdam, April 9.—The German admiralty has given out an official statement in which the loss of the submarine U-29 is accepted. The text of the communication follows: "The submarine U-29 has not returned from its last cruise. According to a report of the British admiralty of March 26 this vessel, with her crew, was sent to the bottom. She therefore must be regarded as lost." It is generally accepted that the U-29 was commanded by Capt. Otto Weddigen, who had charge of the U-9 when this submarine sank the cruisers Hogue, Aboukir and Cressy last September.

GIVES BIRTH TO DAUGHTER.

Crown Princess Cecelie of Germany Now Has Five Children.

Berlin, via London, April 9.—Crown Princess Cecelie on Wednesday gave birth to a daughter. The mother and child are doing well. The crown princess, who is a daughter of the late Friedrich Franz III of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, married Frederick William, the German crown prince, in June, 1905. They now have five children, four boys, the eldest being nine years of age, and one daughter.

Approve Hawaiian Bill.

Honolulu, T. H., April 8.—A bill for compulsory military training passed the house of the legislature.

HEAVY FIGHTING IS ON

FRENCH PUSH FORWARD AGAINST GERMAN WEDGE IN MEUSE REGION.

TAKE LES EPARGES TRENCHES

Berlin Denies Claims and Says Rushes Are Repulsed With Heavy Losses to the Enemy—Teutons Capture Drel Grachten.

London, April 12.—The French offensive in the district between the Meuse and the Moselle has developed into one of the most desperate battles of the war.

Official reports given out in Paris on Friday declare that the important position of Les Eparges, which dominates the plain of Woivre, now is completely in the hands of the allies. Trenches here, it is reported, were "choked with German dead."

In the forest of Montmare, it is claimed, fifteen attacks of the Germans in efforts to retake trenches captured Thursday were repulsed. The reports adds that heaps of German bodies lay upon the ground afterward, while in Champagne the Germans were mowed down in a similar offensive movement.

The French claim also the capture of 600 feet of ground in the forest of Ailly.

The French are incessantly bombarding St. Mihiel, the point of the wedge they are trying to force out, and at the same time are attacking the two sides of the wedge with infantry and artillery in an endeavor to reach the roads which lead from St. Mihiel to Metz. If the progress already is as great as the French claim it to be, these roads should now be almost within reach of the French guns.

Berlin denies the claims of success made by the allies, however, and official statements say that all French attacks were repulsed in this region, with tremendous loss to the French. The Germans report that the Belgians have been driven out of Drel Grachten, on the Yser canal, with heavy losses.

ROCKEFELLER'S CAR HITS BOY

Oil Magnate Leaps From Auto and Helps Pick Up Unconscious Child.

Tarrytown, N. Y., April 12.—The big Rockefeller limousine with John D. Rockefeller as one of the occupants ran into and severely hurt George Edgar, twelve years old, on Friday. The boy's parents are poor. The chauffeur was at the wheel, and with Mr. Rockefeller inside were members of the family and two nurses. The automobile was just rolling out of the Rockefeller grounds on an outing to West Point. Mr. Rockefeller was first out of the car and helped the woman nurses pick up the unconscious boy. The injured boy was taken to Tarrytown hospital. The visible hurts are lip cuts and scratches but a concussion is possible.

Mr. Rockefeller telephoned to the hospital: "Do everything possible to help the boy."

Later he sent a messenger to the parents expressing his sympathy and assuring them that everything would be done for the child.

SEE BUSINESS BOOM IN U. S.

Treasury Officials Base Statement on Bank Reports—Revival of Trade Activity Spreads to Every Line.

Washington, April 10.—Treasury officials predicted continued improvement in business conditions throughout the country. Their optimism was based on reports from eighty national bank examiners, which the department made public on Friday in a statement declaring the recent past has been marked by a steady return to conditions existing before the European war upset American commercial relations, both domestic and foreign. Revival of business activity in virtually every line was found. Good crops are expected.

Milwaukee, April 12.—By leaping head first from the tenth story of the First National bank building, Christopher Paulos, sixty-one, a member of the state assembly, committed suicide on Friday. His head struck the pavement. Last January Paulos became involved in some financial difficulties when several checks appeared at the bank when there was not sufficient cash to his credit to meet them.

Adell.—Burglars broke into the post office of Seaman & Ziegler here, and stole as much of the stock as they could carry away. The post office safe was not cracked. Thirty-seven cans of sardines were found near Waldo and this is the only clue. It is believed hoboes did the job. The burglars possessed good appetites, judging by the way they made the sardines fly.

Green Bay.—Frank Butterick, Green Bay, an engineer, was killed outright, and Thomas Dare, Green Bay, fireman, was perhaps fatally injured when an engine of the freight train on the Green Bay & Western railway went into a ditch at Forestville, a station between Algoma and Sturgeon Bay. Butterick was thrown from his engine as it left the rails and his body was found about four feet from the engine. He was dead when picked up. Dare was scalded about the body and his head cut.

Kenosha.—"I'll take a year or ten years in prison, but I won't tell you where I live or who my father is."

This was the statement of a man arrested under the name of John Marone, after he had been surrounded by villagers in the Bullamore store at Somers, as he entered a plea of guilty to charges of burglary in the municipal court here. "My father and mother, my sisters and brothers, are good, respectable people, and I don't want them ever to know that I was a burglar," continued Marone. Judge Randall directed that photographs of him be taken and sent to detectives in many cities in an effort to learn his identity.
